

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Minstrels Saturday.
The engagement of Miss Harriet L. Levers and Mr. Arthur Wall is announced.

John G. Woolley, the temperance orator who ran for President on the Prohibition ticket, will be here next month.

Carl L. Singer and Miss Jean McDonald, both of this city, were married Tuesday evening by Rev. George L. Pearson, at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage.

All the polo players of Honolulu have entered for a race at the track tomorrow afternoon. Colonel Cornwell has arranged for the event, and it will be one of the side features of the show. Most of the ponies are fast, and carry good riders.

Superintendent E. P. Church, of the State school for the blind, at Lansing, Mich., and formerly president of Oahu College, died June 4. He became head of the college in 1870, having previously been one of the faculty under Professor Alexander. He left the Islands in 1875.

Leon Mooser, business manager for the "Flying Jordans" Vaudeville Company, arrived yesterday on the Peking, accompanied by two or three members of the company. They will open their engagement on Monday, June 24. As many of the features require more space than can be obtained in the theaters, the company will perform under canvas.

Aoyagi, a Japanese, was taken from the Oahu railway train which reached Honolulu last evening after 5 o'clock, and charged with vagrancy. On his person was found a beautiful, but murderous, Japanese dagger in an ebony wood case. The conductor called the attention of William Kane, police officer at Ewa, to the weapon, stating he had observed it on two or three occasions.

H. N. Hadley was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn to by a Japanese named Simumuro, who charges Hadley with gross cheat. He alleges that Hadley, by false pretences and misrepresentations, procured from him the sum of $5 on the ground that he needed it for a surgical operation. Simumuro alleges that in truth Hadley did not intend to undergo a surgical operation, but was preparing to leave the country.

The second performance of the Healanian minstrels, to be given tomorrow night at the Hawaiian Opera House, promises to be an unqualified success. The director has used the axe with an unsparring hand, and several numbers which were given on the first night will be entirely cut out. The scenes have been arranged so that stage changes can be made more rapidly, doing away with the long waits between numbers.

Last night's rehearsal was a good one, and ginger and snap were the watchwords. In the first part there will be introduced new songs and gags. Charles Elston, a favorite wherever his tenor voice is heard, will sing "My Dreams," by Tosti. Hawkins will again sing the great musical success, "The Healanian Girl," composed especially for the minstrels by Sonny Cunha. "Sappho," with Sonny Cunha as the star, will be given again. The stage settings for this scene will be gorgeous, and adapted with a view to showing off the little figure of the 300-pound prodigy to the best advantage. Hawkins will follow in several of his ragtime specialties.

The burlesque on Captain Berger and other celebrities of the city will also be given. As one of the biggest hits of the first performance, the boys have entered into the spirit of this number with vim.

The star of the evening will be Ralph Yardley, the caricaturist, who will portray in charcoal likenesses of Honolulu's best known citizens. The performance will conclude with the grand march of the Amazons in all the gorgeous finery of tights and blonde wigs. The Tuxedo Quartet will also render several ballads.

Kubey-Rosenberg.
Samuel Kubey surprised his friends yesterday by becoming a benedict. At the residence of Captain and Mrs. Soule, on Lunaliio street, at 2 p. m., Mr. Kubey and Miss Bertha Rosenberg were united in marriage by the Rev. George L. Pearson, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. A number of friends of the couple were present and accompanied them to the depot, where they boarded the 3:15 train for Wailua. They will remain at the Wailua Hotel for several days. Mrs. Kubey is a sister of Mrs. Sam Lederer of this city.

Employees of Kepioli Park last week for a raise in wages, were meeting $14 a month, and demand for an increase of $4. Commissioners have granted the raise, and the work in the park is as usual.

A man was brought to the Hospital on Wednesday afternoon in an unconscious condition. It is reported to the physicians that he had been kicked by a mule. An examination of the man's body disclosed marks of violence. He died about 10 o'clock after being received at the hospital. A post-mortem examination showed that the liver had been broken and a hemorrhage had caused death.

Beautiful and intricate rugs from Turkey and Persia, importations, brought to the city by Mr. M. B. Mihan, who is now in the city. These rugs are being opened and will be displayed in a few days at the rooms of the Hawaiian Electric Company, on Alakea street. Black, the veteran job printer, of the employ of the Robert Company, on the ground, as he stated, that the company offered employment to Chinamen.
